

city kidz

I don't know about you, but, for us and our kids, summer has been a blast so far. We've already run two weeks of Camp CityKidz and we're so excited to welcome even more kids to enjoy the thrill of summer camp in the weeks to come.

I look forward to sharing some camp highlights with you next month, and in the meantime, I've got a great little story for you to enjoy:

Story of Hope: Noah and Emma

Seeing the big red buses and volunteers picking up children outside her apartment, Tiffany was curious. She asked around and soon that it was an organization called CityKidz that was putting on the weekly program that seemed to spark such excitement in the children in her neighbourhood.

Thank you, as always, for your dependable support. I hope you enjoy Noah and Emma's story and know that your support is what makes their CityKidz journey possible. I wish you a lovely long weekend and look forward to sharing all the CityKidz summer fun with you in next month's update.

Sincerely,
Lisa
