Dear Tintern,

This summer, children experienced more than just camp, they found belonging.

When we first reached out, we told you about kids facing long summers; no backyard to play in, no trips or vacations, and no chance to experience the adventure and memories that summer camp can bring.

But because of your ongoing generosity, that story changed.

Children like Jackson, James, and Olivia* spent their summer laughing, exploring, growing, and discovering what it means to belong.

From the Frontlines: Moments Made Possible

"There was this one boy, Jackson, who started camp alone. Now, he's best buds with Wyatt."

— Sarah, Camp Leader

"At first James didn't want to come. But when we talked about comic books, he lit up."

— Josh, Camp Leader

"I'm a little bit sad. Tomorrow is the last day of camp already."

— CityKidz Camper

"CityKidz takes care of them by providing lunch and snacks."

— Camper's Parent

And the impact was everywhere. Because of you, over 100 kids:

- ✓ Got a safe ride to camp on our big red bus
- ✓ Ate healthy meals and snacks every day
- ✓ Visited African Lion Safari
- ✓ Cheered their team on during Water Day
- ✓ Felt seen, included, and joyful

There's no better way to say thank you than by letting the kids show you themselves.

This summer didn't just give children a week of camp; it gave them the joy of being a kid and the deeper message that they matter, they belong, and their story can be different.

From all of us at CityKidz: Thank you for making this a Summer to Remember.

Sincerely,
Lisa Kostopoulos

P.S. Fall programming is just around the corner! With this season's Big, Big Worlds theme, kids will keep learning, growing, and discovering their place in the world — thanks to your ongoing support.
