

They Grew Up with CityKidz—Now They Give Back

It's National Volunteer Week, Tintern!

At CityKidz, we're especially proud to celebrate volunteers who are a part of the CityKidz journey. Our alumni and Junior Leaders are proof that when you pour love into a child, it grows into service, leadership, and a passion to give back.

These young changemakers now walk alongside the next generation, leading with heart, sharing hope, and showing kids how to dream big!

For youth like Avant, giving back means making sure other kids experience the same love and support he did growing up at CityKidz. Now, he spends his Saturdays volunteering—leading with joy, mentoring with heart, and showing what it means to be a true Servant of Love.

Coral's journey with CityKidz began as a child on the bus and she never left. Now a dedicated volunteer, Coral is building one-on-one connections, inspiring trust, and giving back to the very community that shaped her. Her story is a beautiful testament to the power of growing up with support and choosing to pass it on.

Please join me in thanking our CityKidz volunteers — many of whom are also members of our Community of Hope! Their time and talents make CityKidz possible, and we couldn't be more grateful.

Sincerely,
Lisa
